A list by county of tax delinquent properties currently in the State's inventory.

Arizona County Treasurers – tax lien certificate assignments (certificates of purchase)

NOTE: Tax lien sales in Arizona are held in January/February through the Treasurer's office, so look for fresh lists of available certificates left over from the sales a few weeks after the county sale has ended. It can sometimes take awhile for the county to post the list, so call if you are still waiting on one.

[More Arizona counties....]

NOTE: RealAuction.com hosts online tax lien sales conducted in some Arizona counties. After the sales are over, you can visit <http://www.realauction.com/county-tax-lien> for links to those county tax sale websites to see if there are over-the-counter tax lien certificates available for purchase. First click on any of the Arizona county links to go to that county's auction page. Click on "Purchase County-Held Certificates" – if shown – in the blue area on the right-hand side of the web page.
